

PLAY-CRICKET MOST VALUABLE PLAYER (MVP): THE FORMULA

The Play-Cricket MVP is a cumulative points system that rewards players for runs scored, wickets taken and catches held. A player achieves their points based on the following criteria:

BATTING

Batting points are achieved for:

- Every 20 runs (1pt)
- Reaching 50 (1pt)
- Reaching 100 (1pt)
- Scoring over 20% of a teams runs (1pt)
- Hitting eight or more boundaries (1pt)

BOWLING

Bowling points are achieved for:

- Each Wicket (1pt)
- Bonus point for taking 3 wickets in an innings (1pt)
- Bonus point for taking 5 wickets in an innings (1pt)
- Bowling 2 maidens (1pt)
- Acheiving a benchmark economy rate of 3.0 (1pt)

FIELDING

Fielding points are accumulated for:

- Catches (1pt per)
- Run outs (1pt per)
- Stumping (1pt per)
- Bonus for 3 or more fielding dismissals in an innings (1pt)

CAPTAINCY

- A captain of a winning side will receive 1 bonus point

WINNING TEAMS

- All members of a winning team receive 1 bonus point

BATTING + BOWLING + FIELDING + CAPTAINCY + WINNING = TOTAL MVP